LEARN MORE ABOUT YOUR COMMITTEE
AND WHAT THE ROLES ARE ABOUT

PRESIDENT

"Irish" Keith Taylor

The role of the president is to lead the Management Committee to make sure it is working on a common goal for the best interests of the Club.

The President is the primary contact for any interclub or internal concerns. The President is also the key point of contact for Sponsors and Life Members and Government bodies.

VICE PRESIDENT

Tiki Tuapou

The Vice President also is the Rugby Coordinator for the Club. The Rugby Coordinator will manage all fixtures, carnivals and competition issues involved with the club. The Rugby Coordinator, with the help of the Registrar, is the main point of contact for Coaches and Managers relating to games, rules, coaching and team management.

SECRETARY

Marg Haynes

The Secretary looks after the administration tasks for the committee and the club. This includes the management of all communication, events, fundraising and merchandising. The secretary will support the President and Vice President in day to day running of the club.

TREASURER

Rob Sparks

The Treasurer is in charge of all finances for the club. All club purchases are approved by the treasurer. The treasurer will ensure that all financial documentation and record keeping is maintained. The clubhouse manager reports to the treasurer to ensure the club is financially sustainable and fees are kept as low as possible for players

CONSULTANT / LIFE MEMBER

John Lloyd

The consultant / life member role is important for the committee as it provides perspective as to where the club has come from and learnings from previous years.

Other Committee Roles 2019

PROJECT AND GRANTS OFFICER Anthony Maguire

This role is a key role for the club as it works with government bodies to obtain grants that are so important for the growth of the club. This role is also in charge of overseeing club projects such as renovations and upgrades to the fields and the clubhouse.
